Dear Mr. Casey:

I am importuning you once again to determine whether or not you might be able to join our October meeting of the Marshall Group, probably the 16th or the following week. Last time around, [] advised that your schedule continued very heavy.

STAT

Our main concern the last few meetings since my May letter to you has been the manpower situation in all the services, but we are turning now to aspects of Intelligence and more professionalism on the military side in civilian decisions.

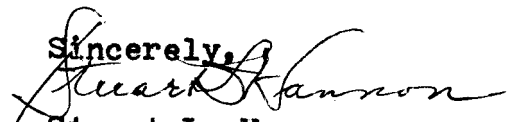

Needless to restate, our Group, many of whom you surely know, would welcome you whenever possible, whether during the remainder of this year or early next.

We meet as always at 1100 - 17th N.W., the MOWW offices, 10th floor conference room, from 11:00 to 12:15/30.

We're all very pleased that the cabal collapsed.

SLH/c

Sincerely,

Stuart L. Hannon
